WONDER if all the hoboes come from Hoboken?

THE Weather Clerk said one day that it was to be warmer the next day; and that was why it was cold enough to freeze the legs off an iron pot.

WORD comes from Washington that when Judge WILLIAM H. HOLT's commission expires as Federal Judge in Porto Rico the President will not reappoint him.

THE "Pike Site" having at last been "settled" in Cincinnati, it is hoped the papers of that suburb will now proceed to give their readers some local news.

THE Japanese loan bonds offered in New York City were seven times over subscribed. Nearly half of the subscribers were women; which only goes to show that when the women take things in hand they go offski.

THE little matter of $75,000,000 of Uncle Sam's gold going to Europe last week didn't cause a ripple in the local money market. THE LEDGER is still accepting Greenbacks and National Bank Notes at par for subscriptions.

A NEW JERSEY Judge has decided, from a purely legal standpoint, that one boy is worth as much as two girls. That may go all right in New Jersey; but there are some girls in Maysville who are worth boys by the dozen.

AN exchange, in noting the death of a good mother, says "She leaves four children besides her husband." Next.

EVEN the staid American Tract Society finds that there is so much work to do at home that it cannot spend as much money as heretofore in efforts to enlighten the heathen in foreign lands.

THE United States Supreme Court has decided that a telegraph operator and a fireman engaged by a railroad are "fellow-servants," and that the negligence of the former causing the death of the latter in the operation of trains was a risk the fireman assumed, and was not a ground for damages against the railroad company.

A FOND mother over in Columbus, O., dismounted from a streetcar and forgot her two-year-old RUTH AUGUSTA COUSINS, name and all. Just as like as not the little one fell out of her lap when she arose to leave the car. However, after pawing the air for a couple of hours, she found her darling duly "tagged" at the company's office. After signing a receipt for the "lost property," she vowed she'd never do it again—till the next time.

HOORAY! In Lisbon, in so-called civilized and christianized Spain, FERNANDO OLIVERA, a famous bullfighter, was a few days ago engaged in the pleasureable pastime of torturing a bull, to the supreme delight of Spanish royalty and thousands of other brutes. In one of his most magnificent sallies on the poor animal, his horse stumbled and he was thrown within convenient reach of the bull, which soon trampled him to death and tossed the body high in the air. The strangest part of the affair is that some of the ladies present actually fainted. If the poor bull had been slowly but successfully tortured to death, the enthusiasm of these "ladies" would have reached from Lisbon to Luzon. Score one for the bull.

Captain John Thornburg of Three Mile, W. Va., and for many years actively employed in steamboating, says that there has been but one steamboat on the Ohio or Mississippi rivers whose bell contained as much as $100 worth of silver, and that was the Grand Tower of St. Louis, whose bell was so clear that it could be heard ten miles up and down the river. Captain Thornburg was Clerk on the famous sidewheel Fleetwood years ago.

FATHER AND SON

Meet Face to Face in the Jail Here a Few Days Ago

Not many days ago a prisoner was placed in the County Jail.

As he passed through the portal into the main hall of the bastille who should he chance to meet but his own son.

After a greeting of the two the father remarked to the son:

"My boy, don't you ever do anything to disgrace your father."

Now the advice was all right and should be heeded by all sons, but under the circumstances there is a discordant note in the admonition of the father to the wayward offspring.

Suppose we reverse matters and the son propounds the injunction to the parent:

"Father, what brings you here; why disgrace your wife and children by being a prisoner here?"

Here is an actual occurrence right in our own city from which a sermon might be preached.

But what's the use? Life has its fantastical phases; perhaps it was so intended and will likely continue so till the end of time.

It is a sad commentary of the times, however, to say the least.

"Are You Awake!"
